

Tamahka Trails at the Paragon Casino Resort is on a 230-acre tract of rolling terrain. The golf course features winding creeks, majestic century-old trees. It was designed by award-winning architect Steve Smyers, who incorporated natural features into one of the premier golf courses in Louisiana. It has been the host site of the USGA U.S. Open Qualifier in 2001-2004 and 2023, the USFA U.S. Senior Amateur Qualifier, the PGA Gulf States Open in 2025, Gulf States Charter Championship in 2020, the State Senior Amateur Championship in 2002 and 2023, the USGA U.S. Junior Amateur Qualifier in 2022 and voted Best Course in Louisiana by Southern Gaming and Destinations Magazine.

This 18 hole, par 71 championship layout will challenge scratch golfers and provide an enjoyable experience for higher handicappers by offering 5 sets of tees (ranging from 7,130 yards to 4,251).
